

Foreshadowed Victory Over Temptation

Promise: Christ's shares by faith His victory over the Devil

Pastor Timothy A. Duesenberg

Genesis 22:1-18; Ps 25:1-9; James 1:12-18; Mark 1:9-15

(First Sunday in Lent, 2/21/21)

Abraham said, "God will provide for himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So they went both of them together. — v. 8

Lead In – Mark's account, unlike Matthew and Luke's, mentions no particular presentation of a temptation by the devil to our Lord Jesus. We are merely told that Jesus was in the wilderness (read desert) for forty days being tempted by Satan, and that the angels were ministering to Him. And although the other accounts tell of Jesus' overcoming the temptations, we know that such victories were a prelude to the ultimate victory Jesus won over the devil on the Cross. Interestingly, we have a foreshadowing of this victory in our First Lesson this morning...

I. Abraham Was Tested, Not Tempted, By God

- How do we know this testing was not a temptation?
- The significance of Moriah and the mountain...
- The significance of all sacrifices...

II. Some Unusual Things Along the Way

- The promise to servants to return with the boy...
- Isaac is given the wood for the sacrifice to bear...
- In answer to Isaac's inquiry concerning the sacrifice

III. Ultimate Foreshadowing: A Ram Caught In Thicket

- Who do you suppose the Angel is?
- Head of male sheep caught in crown of thorns...
- Indeed the Lord does provide...

Parting Shot – As the covenant promise to Abraham is renewed the words are spoken again, "that in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed." Blessed indeed! The particular offspring spoke on here is the Incarnate Son of God, our Lord Jesus. For He descended from Abraham. When He overcame Satan's temptations in the wilderness, this was a prelude to His final victory over sin, death, and the devil which He won on the Cross. And Abraham's trust in the Lord shows us how we receive the benefits of Christ's benefits – trust in His promise and trust in his atoning sacrifice for sins.

1Pe 1:6-7 In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Ja 1:13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one.

Temptation = enticement to sin. Testing = opportunity to grow in trust and obedience.

He 11:19 [Abraham] considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

Genesis 22:1-18 ESV

The Sacrifice of Isaac

<sup>1</sup>After these things God tested Abraham and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here am I." <sup>2</sup>He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you." <sup>3</sup>So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac. And he cut the wood for the burnt offering and arose and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from afar. <sup>5</sup>Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; I and the boy will go over there and worship and come again to you." <sup>6</sup>And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. And he took in his hand the fire and the knife. So they went both of them together. <sup>7</sup>And Isaac said to his father Abraham, "My father!" And he said, "Here am I, my son." He said, "Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" <sup>8</sup>Abraham said, "God will provide for himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So they went both of them together.

<sup>9</sup>When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built the altar there and laid the wood in order and bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup>Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son. <sup>11</sup>But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here am I." <sup>12</sup>He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me." <sup>13</sup>And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him was a ram, caught in a thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup>So Abraham called the name of that place, "The LORD will provide"; as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided."

<sup>15</sup>And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven <sup>16</sup>and said, "By myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son. <sup>17</sup>I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of his enemies. <sup>18</sup>and in your offspring shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."

Jn 19:16-17 So [Pilate] delivered him over to them to be crucified. And he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which in Aramaic is called Golgotha.

Mk 8:37 For what can a man give in return for his life?

He 10:4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

He 10:11-12, 14 And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God. ... For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

Ex 12:5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

Jn 1:29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!"
