

Living Water

Promise: coming to Jesus results in the satisfaction of our deepest thirst

Pastor Timothy A. Duesenberg

Exodus 17:1-7; Psalm 95:1-9; Romans 5:1-8; John 4:5-30, 39-42
(Third Sunday in Lent, 3/15/20)

Whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty forever. – v. 14a

Lead In – Most of us, most of the time, have no idea what real thirst is all about. We take drinking water for granted. It is as close as the nearest tap, and there are facets all over the place. Except for strenuous athletic activities or neglect, few of us flirt with life-threatening dehydration. And yet I think most of us know that we can't live long without water...

I. Much of the Biblical World is At Least Semi-Arid

- When we read wilderness think desert...
- Importance of rivers, springs, and wells...
- Conservation as opposed to extravagance...

II. Jesus' Encounter With a Thirsty Woman

- Typical in Jn's account she doesn't understand...
- Jesus moves from physical to spiritual thirst...

III. Two Old Testament Accounts Shedding Light

- Water from rock in the wilderness wandering...
- Trickle of water from temple in Ezekiel...

IV. Looking to Jesus For Only Fulfillment

- For physical necessities as in Lord's Prayer...
- For deepest (spiritual) need: communion w life!

Parting Shot – Notice the role of the woman's testimony. It is rather brief on her encounter, but quick to come to the point – "He told me all that I ever did." They came and saw for themselves! And even more powerfully they heard for themselves.

Ex 17:1 All the congregation of the people of Israel moved on from the wilderness of Sin by stages, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Jn 4:10-11 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?"

Jn 3:4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

Ps 63:1 O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Ex 17:6 Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb, and you shall strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people will drink." And Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Jesus And the Woman of Samaria

<sup>5</sup>So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as he was from his journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

<sup>7</sup>There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." <sup>8</sup>(For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) <sup>9</sup>The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? <sup>12</sup>Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock." <sup>13</sup>Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty forever. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." <sup>15</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."

<sup>39</sup>Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did." <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>And many more believed because of his word. <sup>42</sup>They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world."

1 Co 10:2-4 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ.

Ez 47:1 Then he brought me back to the door of the temple, and behold, water was issuing from below the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was flowing down from below the south end of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar.

4th Petition: God gives daily bread, even without our prayer, to all people, though sinful, but we ask in this prayer that he will help us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanks.
